January Program

InFLUX flute and harp duo, January 9, 10:30 a.m. at St. Thomas the Apostle Episcopal Church. Mark your calendars!

inFLUX Flute and Harp, based in Houston, TX, was founded in 2015 by flutist Izumi Miyahara and harpist Emily Klein. The ensemble creates innovative concerts in the community by partnering with non-profit organizations. Highlights from past projects include “Dionysia 2017 - Houston Book of the Dead: How to Live”, a collaboration between inFLUX, New Hope Housing (an assisted living facility for low income and formerly homeless individuals), and Center for Creative Work at the University of Houston. Dionysia is an annual festival created by the University of Houston to immerse the Houston community in arts events; for this project, inFLUX created a program of music consisting of works by Charles Rochester Young, Vincent Persichetti, and Erik Satie/Takemitsu that reflected the theme of “Hearth and Home: Houstonians Sharing Their Life Journeys.”

As part of inFLUX’s mission to perform classical music outside the concert hall, the duo cultivates relationships with communities of care. Partnerships include Music for Autism, Sheltering Arms Senior Services, Daniel Pearl World Music Days, and the Houston Methodist Hospital’s Crain Garden Recital Series. The duo also performs in traditional concert settings with recitals on the Memorial Classical Music Series (Houston), Phil Kramer Recital Series at New Hope Lutheran Church (Missouri City, TX), and a residency at Avaloch Farm Music Institute in Boscawen, New Hampshire during the summer of 2018.

In addition to their performance schedule, Emily and Izumi are passionate educators and work with Da Camera of Houston’s Young Artist Program and American Festival of the Arts to bring performances and masterclasses to students in the Houston and Pasadena Independent School Districts.

Opportunity knocked and HSLBA answered!

HSLBA was recently provided a fund-raising opportunity when "friends of music" wanted to donate unsold items from an estate sale. . . with the proviso that all funds raised would support music education programs.

WIN/WIN - HSLBA entered into a consignment contract with the Nearly New Thrift Shop (Nassau Bay). The shop will sell the items and HSLBA will receive 50% of the sales price. Items must be in good, usable condition and sell for $5 or greater to be consigned. Items not sold will be donated by the Nearly New to other charities.

This is a good opportunity for HSLBA members to also contribute usable items and HSLBA to be the benefactor. Let's start by donating jewelry: rings, necklaces, earrings, and bracelets (no watches unless in working condition with batteries included). You can bring bags and boxes of jewelry to our next meeting! Receipts provided.

President's Message

Dear Friends,

We had such a great time at the Holiday Brunch at the Bay Area Museum. Led by the committee of Mary Ruth Greenwell, Deborah Jozwiak, Betty Stoub, Yvonne Herring, and Pat Biddle, we had beautiful ornament decorations and poinsettias on the tables, punch and coffee, lots of food--way too many choices--and lots of visiting! Thanks to all of you who made scrumptious desserts and savories. If you didn't make it, you missed a lovely party! Mary Ruth Greenwell and Deborah Jozwiak are new to our group but were willing to jump in and work hard. Pat and Yvonne had everything organized and cleanup went quickly, also with Betty Stoub and Louise Russell helping.

Thanks also to Ann Morgan, Glenda Toole, and Kathleen Kearns for greeting everyone and providing nametags. Russell Herring helped with tables and chairs beforehand. Russell and Bob McGlashan helped put the tables back in their place afterward.

The morning was beautiful and the setting is always a favorite. Many guests noticed the lovely memorial case that Ava Galt had made to Carole Murphy. Ava and Carole were co-presidents of the Bay Area Museum board. A special guest was Pam Vining, Carole's daughter.

We look forward to 2019 for our organization and hope you have a wonderful new year!!! See you Jan. 9 at St. Thomas the Apostle Episcopal Church!

Save the date! February 20 - Sparky's Jazz Express for our program. Note this is a 3rd

Wednesday to fit Sparky's schedule.
